Expertise and passion at your service

We at Hay Hampers are a family-run company and can offer flexibility, passion and reliability.
For us, personal service is as important as the quality of our products. For over 30 years, we have made distinctive gifts for every occasion, budget and recipient all year round. Not only is our experience in sourcing new, exclusive products well acknowledged but also our attention to small details. Our bespoke services meet even the most challenging needs.
We aim to remove the stresses of giving a gift and offer you total confidence that the people who are important to you are in safe hands with us.

Wishing you all the best,

The Hay Hampers Team

When experience makes the difference

"They were absolutely delighted by the gifts and also by the quality of the contents. Your whole service is fantastic!"

Julie, HR Manager

We offer quality products that you can rely on, but also helpful, efficient and personal service from a family-run business.
For all of us at Hay Hampers, customer care is paramount as we want you to come back to us time and time again.

Sharing is the joy of living

"Such a wide choice of reasonably priced products – and in big sizes as well! The fact that you can choose the delivery date is brilliant too. I will definitely be using your company again and recommending it to everyone I know."

Lisa, PA

As we believe that good food and wine bring everyone together, our hampers contain products in generous sizes to share. We also offer personalised packaging to make your gifts truly unique. At Hay Hampers, we like to help you let the people you value know that you care.

Authentic tastes are our passion

"Brilliant gift!! Gets harder every year to find something different and unique. This was perfect!! All the food tasted great."

George, Marketing Director

We carefully source our delicacies from the best, artisan producers in Britain and around the world, particularly France and Italy. Many of our products are not available on an everyday basis as they are exclusive to us in the UK. We love the stories about our products, the people who produce them, the places they come from and we would love to share this gastronomic journey with you.
